" My name is Brianna Collora. I'm 17 year old high school senior. I'm eager to leave for college as a history major, and hope to one day become an assistant district attorney. I discovered my love for law, debate, and public speaking on the school mock trial team. It was as captain of both mock trial and varsity field hockey that I learned how to be a good leader, and influence both a group and individual in a positive, calm manner that would benefit everyone. I find joy in helping people, and believe that as long as we listen, learn, and be kind, we'll always continue to grow."
